NO VERDICT AS YET

JURY IN THE CASE OF DR. HYDE
SEEMS TO BE HOPELESSLY DIVIDED.

A DISAGREEMENT IS PREDICTED

A Hung Jury Appears to Be the Only Result of Nearly Five Weeks of Desperate Battling in the Criminal Court.

International News Service.

Kansas City, Mo., May 14.—Unless present indications fail, the jury which since 10 o'clock Friday night has had the fate of Dr. B. Clark Hyde in its hands, will not reach an agreement.

From reports of the balloting it is known that is members are tonight still far from reaching an unanimity of opinion as to the guilt or innocence of the accused.

At the beginning of the deliberations the division was 6 to 6, so reports say, and during the day it was 7 to 5 for conviction and 8 to 4 for conviction, according to the same source. At no time have there been as many as nine of one mind, it is said.

Judge Ralph S. Lathshaw has announced that he will keep the jury locked up until Tuesday night and should they fail to reach a verdict before that time and there is still no chance of an agreement, they will be discharged.

In the latter event Dr. Hyde may be admitted to bail. He will be tried next, should this jury disagree, on the charge of killing Chrisman Swope, son of Mrs. Logan O. Swope and brother of his wife, but the trial can not take place until next autumn.

At 11:30 o'clock the jury having failed to reach a verdict, was locked up for the night and reports from the jury room say that ten of the jurors are in favor of the death penalty, one favors life imprisonment and one is for acquittal.

After the issuing of the warrant persons will not be exempt from a fine by taking out a license.

"JOE" LINCOLN RESIGNS

District Manager for Bell Company
Going to St. Joe.

Joseph H. Lincoln, district manager for the Missouri and Kansas Telephone company, with headquarters in Sedalia, has resigned and will leave Monday for St. Joseph, Mo., to accept the position of district superintendent for the same company. The change in positions materially better Mr. Lincoln's circumstances, as one of the inducements is a noticeable increase in salary.

Mr. Lincoln is a practical telephone man and has been connected with the Bell in this city for almost fifteen years past. He knows the business from A to Z, and his leaving this city to locate elsewhere permanently will be sincerely regretted by every acquaintance.

No successor for the district managership has as yet been announced.

AUTUMN WEDDING

GRANDDAUGHTER OF MRS. ANNA
HELLER, OF THIS CITY, IS TO BE THE BRIDE.

SHE RESIDES AT SAN DIEGO, CAL.

Daughter of Matt F. Heller, a Former Resident of This City, Who Has Resided on the Pacific Coast for Years.

Miss Lenore Heller, a daughter of Matt F. Heller, a leading grocer of San Diego, Cal., and a granddaughter of Mrs. Anna Heller, of East Fifth street, this city, is written of as follows in the San Diego Evening Tribune of May 9:

An engagement announcement that was received with particular interest by the members of the younger social set of this city, on account of being a complete surprise to their friends, was that of Miss Lenore Heller and James Forward.

The announcement was made Saturday afternoon at the social and business meeting held by the members of the Zia Rowing club. About sixty members were present, including the five crews of the club.

Mrs. Warren Crouse, the president of the club, was the only one in the secret, and, following the business meeting, made the announcement, which was followed by the serving of dainty refreshments.

The table was decorated in artistic fashion with bouquets of sweet peas, and a pretty and appropriate feature of the decorative scheme was a large heart, formed of pink carnations, suspended above the table with ribbon streamers of pink.

Miss Heller is one of the most popular of the younger society girls of this city, a member of the Zia rowing club, and of the Delta Iota Chi sorority, recently disbanded. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Heller.

Mr. Forward is prominent in business and social circles, being the secretary of the Union Title and Trust company. He is the son of former Mayor and Mrs. John F. Forward.

The date of the wedding is not definitely announced, but will take place during the early autumn.

DEATH VERY NEAR

TWO LADIES SUFFERED SEVERE INJURIES IN RUNAWAY SAT-URDAY AFTERNOON.

YOUNG GIRLS NARROWLY ESCAPE

Barking Dog Frightened a Shetland
Pony, Which in Turn, Alarmed Team of Horses and Overturned the Buggy.

Mrs. Isadore Clement, wife of a farmer, residing southwest of the city, was seriously injured; Mrs. Henry Bolton, living five miles west of town, was dangerously injured and Misses Isabelle Bartle and Hattie Nichols, young girls, had a narrow escape from serious injury in a disastrous runaway accident near High Point school, southwest of the city, at 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Clement was frightfully bruised and lacerated over her entire body, while on her head she suffered a three-inch scalp wound. Mrs. Bolton was rendered unconscious, remaining so three hours, and besides sustaining a dislocation of the left shoulder, was painfully bruised about her body.

Little Misses Isabelle Bartle, a daughter of Mrs. D. Shelby Bartle, and her cousin, Hattie Nichols, left the Bartle home to go driving in a cart behind the former's Shetland pony.

They had been gone but several minutes when a neighborhood dog ran into the road, barking and frightening the pony. The pony dashed forward and ran away. More than a block distant Mrs. Bolton was seated in a buggy, to which was hitched a team of horses, and was talking to Mrs. Clement.

The frightened Shetland, traveling as fast as it could, caused Mrs. Bolton's team to scare. The two horses turned suddenly just as Mrs. Clement stepped to one side of the road to stop the Shetland pony.

As she did so the buggy swerved to one side, throwing the occupant, Mrs. Bolton, to the ground, and running down and passing over Mrs. Clement. Mrs. Bolton, who was in a delicate condition, was rendered unconscious and blood was flowing from Mrs. Clement's numerous cuts.

Mrs. Bartle, who was in the neighborhood at the time, ran to the rescue of the injured women and after rendering temporary attention summoned Dr. D. P. Dyer. The latter administered chloroform to Mrs. Bolton and ordered the patient removed to the home of her sister, Mrs. S. L. Harsh, Eighteenth street and Warren avenue, where three hours later she recovered consciousness.

Mrs. Clement, although badly injured, was able to walk and was removed to her home. Her injuries are not dangerous, although exceedingly painful.

The two girls remained in the cart pulled by the Shetland pony until it had run almost a mile, and holding onto the lines, stopped the animal. Neither was hurt.

One of Mrs. Bolton's horses was badly cut in the runaway.

A telephone message from Mrs. Harsh's home last night stated that the patient was resting nicely, although the outcome of her case cannot be predicted at the present.

ARRESTED FOR THEFT

Claud Hudson, a Laborer, Charged With Robbing Roommate.

Claud Hudson, aged 26, a laborer, residing at 214 West Johnson street, was arrested Saturday morning by Fred Robertson, a police officer, charged with stealing $30 from his roommate, Don Little, another laborer.

The arrest of Hudson was made by order of Chief of Police Howard Wood, to whom Little made complaint Friday. Hudson was taken to the office of Chief Wood, where he was "sweated." He confessed that he stole the money, and on being arraigned before Judge James C. Connor, sitting as ex-officio justice of the peace, entered a plea of guilty and was held to the action of criminal court in the sum of $500.

Hudson and Little have been rooming together. Early Friday morning, according to statements made by Little to Chief Wood, Hudson arose from bed and awakened Little, telling the latter that he had a dream that he (Hudson) had been robbed of a diamond ring.

Little thought nothing of the affair at the time, and when he arose for the day he discovered that $30 of his money was missing. Hudson then told that in his dream he had also dreamed that Little had been robbed of the money.

On this statement to his friend, Hudson was arrested by the police and confessed after a severe "sweating."

He stated that he had stolen the money to pay off a $20 mortgage, on the ring, and to pay a balance of $4 on the ring, which he owed to Joe Kain, where he had purchased the jewelry.

'WRITTEN AT SEA'

AN INTERESTING LETTER RE-CEIVED FROM MRS. WIL-LIAM D. STEELE.

DESCRIPTIVE OF HER TRAVELS

Missive Was Penned While Aboard
a Vessel Between Singapore and Rangoon—Was Mailed at Borneo.

Mrs. W. D. Steele, president of the Ladies' Musical club, who is making a tour of the world in company with her husband, Hon. W. D. Steele, and son, William, jr., has written the following letter to a Sedalia lady, to whom the Democrat-Sentinel is indebted for permission to reprint it, as follows:

On the Sea, Between Singapore and Rangoon—I mailed you a big, fat, long letter from Singapore and some post cards, but I told you nothing of the coming of "Neptune" on Easter Sunday, the day after we had reached the equator.

On Monday we dropped anchor in the harbor of Java, the most beautiful island in the world. It has been called by all sorts of names—"The Beauty Spot of the World," "The Second Garden of Eden," "The Pearl of the Orient," yet all these names fail to give one an idea of its loveliness.

We went on shore by 10 o'clock and took the railroad from the City of the Pines to Batavia. The road runs through miles of purely tropical scenery; palms of every description, fruits that we never saw or dreamed of before, growing before our very eyes; banana, the only friend; many trees laden with coconuts, dates, etc.; the undergrowth dense and luxuriant.

The cottages of the natives are built on bamboo poles up from the ground, made of beautiful woven matting, with roofs of tile and some thatched; the people, mostly Malays, wearing scarcely any clothes and mostly hairless, but those that did wear a head covering wore the little round conical ones, which were very picturesque. All seemed content and happy and seemed to do much more work than the natives of Manila.

These Malays are governed by the Dutch, and the island is nine times the size of the mother government—Holland. The Dutch govern them and the people do the work; the result is that order and neatness reign supreme.

There are fine roads through the island; a great system of canals and drainage; vast rice fields—and the way rice is planted here is new to us. Instead of trenches running around each little field, there are

CHILDREN HAVE DECREASED

Enumeration Shows Thirty-Two Less Than Last Year.

J. M. Logan, trustee officer of the Sedalia public schools, Saturday completed his enumeration of the school children, white and black, and parents in the city of Sedalia.

The enumeration shows there are thirty-two fewer children in Sedalia this year than there were last year, but this deficiency is attributed by Mr. Logan to the fact that many families with children have moved away from Sedalia, while their places have been filled by husbands and wives with no children.

The list as compiled by Mr. Logan follows:

Male children, white	2,303
Female children, white	2,273
Total white children	4,576
Male negro children	355
Female negro children	370

And overhead a potent new, a blood-red banner! see!

The nations gather in affright to ask what the sign may be.

Banner of crimson, banner bright,
banner flaunting the sky!

What is the word that ye bring to men, the hope that ye hold so high?

We come from the fields, we come from the forge, we come from the land and sea,

We come in the right our new born might to see the people free!

Masters, we left you a world to make,
the planning was yours to do,

We were the toilers, humble and sad,
we gave our faith to you.

And now with a dread in our hearts we stand and gaze at the work of years.

We have builded a temple with pillars white, we have stained it with blood and tears!

For our little ones with their teaming hopes ye have roofed the sweatshops den.

And our daughters fair ye have prisoned in the reeking brother's pen!

And so for the sign of our murdered hopes our blood-red banner see,

We come in the right of our new born might to set the people free!

Tremble, oh, masters, tremble all who live by other's toil,

We come your dungeon walls to raze, your citadel to spill!

Yours is the power of club and jail,
yours is the axe and fire.

But ours is the hope of human hearts, the strength of the soul's desire.

Ours is the blazing banner sweeping the sky along!

Ours the host, the marching host—hark to the battle song!

Chanting of brotherhood, chanting of freedom, dreaming the world to be.

We come in the right of our new
born might to set the people free!

CUTTING THE COST.

The proprietor of a meat shop in Sioux Falls, S. D., has done something that promises real results in the way of reducing the cost of living. He advertises that he has "a telephone, no deliveries and no book keeping." He invites prospective customers to call, pick out what they want, pay for it and do their own delivering.

He promises to sell them meat at prices that will save them the cost of the service furnished by other dealers. It is a sort of co-operative scheme in which the purchaser earns what he saves.

Judge R. G. Leaming Asks Republi-

Judge R. G. Leaming, justice of the peace of Sedalia, makes formal announcement in this issue of the Democrat-Sentinel as a candidate for the nomination for re-election to the office which he is now so satisfactori-

Judge Leaming is a pioneer citizen of Sedalia and Pettis county, and the Democrat-Sentinel knows of no one held in higher esteem. He is open and above board in all his dealings, true to his citizenship and ever regards these principles, especially in the conduct of affairs of his office.
He is conservative and renders his decisions in a fair and impartial manner. Judge Leaming is fully qualified for the office to which he aspires, and is asking the republican party for its consideration at the August primary, and does so with a clean record, which stands as an open book.

Good Conversation. Good talk has so much shorthand that it cannot be reported—the inflection, the change of voice, the shrug, cannot be caught on paper. The best of it is when the subject unexpectedly goes cross-lots, by a flash of short-cut, to a conclusion so suddenly revealed that it has the effect of wit. It needs the highest culture and the finest breeding to prevent the conversation from running into more persiflage on the one hand—its common fate—or monologue on the other. Our conversation is largely chaff.—Charles Dudley Warner.

NATION'S CLUB WOMEN MEET

Talks Were Made by Leaders on Various Subjects of Interest—Idea of a Restricted Suffrage Was Advanced.

International News Service.

Cincinnati, Ohio, May 14.—"There is no country in the world where food is so plentiful, and there is no country in the world where it is so badly cooked as right here in America," said Dr. Harvey W. Wiley, of the bureau of chemistry at Washington, in an address at today's gathering of the General Federation of Women's Clubs. "I believe in women going to conventions and even voting," he continued, "but the moment they get too busy with politics to attend to their homes they become useless."

Mrs. Mary F. Rauch, of the Colorado state agricultural college, said:

"The women are the spenders of this country. They disburse fully 90 per cent of the earnings of the nation, and should be taught to spend that money wisely."

"Franchise for Women" was the principal among the topics discussed.

In the absence of Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, of New York city, Miss Kate Jordan, president of the Louisiana Woman Suffrage Congress, spoke for equal suffrage. Rudolph Blankenberg, of Philadelphia, argued for restricted suffrage and suffrage views were presented by Mrs. Alice Hill Chittenden, of Brooklyn.

FORD CARS IN APRIL

A Big Month, for the Ford Motor Company.

The month of April proved a record breaker for the big Ford plant at Highland Park, Detroit—when the whistle blew at 12 o'clock noon, April 30th, the shipments had reached a total of 3,751 cars for the 23½ days. The highest single day's shipment was that of April 29th, when 216 complete cars were sent to buyers all over the world.

The orders for May call for an output of 4,500 cars for the month, so that the April record is due to be broken.

When it is recalled that up to four years ago no one manufacturer ever contemplated a yearly output of over 4,000 cars, the enormous and rapid growth of the automobile industry will be to some extent appreciated. When one manufacturer can build and deliver 200 cars a day and then fall behind on orders, that manufacturer can well claim to have achieved success.

A big addition, 140 feet x 840 feet, has been ordered built at the big plant and when this is completed the Ford capacities will have reached 500 cars a day.

Over 12,000 1910 Ford cars have been delivered.

In the week ending April 30, the shipments reached a total of 1,110 cars.

He will make the garage still better and his plans are fast rounding into shape.

roots from its limbs to the ground and re-roots, making a forest in itself.

There were acres of trees, large droves of deer; bridges spanned the streams; great palms, with tree vines which enveloped them from head to foot; lily ponds, where all manner of huge water lilies and gorgeous leaves floated; whole acres devoted to the culture of coffee, cloves, spices, nutmegs, black pepper. One could spend weeks in the lovely spot, and to miss it would be to miss Java. We returned from Batavia by train in time for 7 p. m. dinner.

The Dutch all wear white and look clean and well groomed, regardless of the intense heat. I am standing the heat very well so far, and so are Mr. Steele and William. We all wear white, as everybody else does on the boat. John Chinaman is everywhere in evidence in Java. We like the Javanese; they are a kindly people, and with the Dutch to direct them they certainly have "The Beauty Spot of the Earth."

We passed some lovely islands coming north and we recrossed the equator. But Neptune did not show up again. Saw lots of flying fish and sharks. Our next stop was at Singapore, which was lovely and interesting, too.

Singapore was a great surprise to us. We had expected a purely commercial city, where the "ends of the earth meet." We found not only this, but one of the most beautiful cities in the world. We landed and were off sight seeing in our rikshaws by 8 a. m., which is always an advantage in the tropics, for the early hours are the ones when one sees the most sights and hasn't the torrid midday heat to endure.

The people here arise early and go to bed at 11 a. m.; remain until 3 p. m., and then bathe and dress until 7 o'clock dinner and then enjoy the rest of the cool evening.

When we first landed at the pier we went in a carriage to the botanical gardens. These gardens are not as extensive as the ones at Buitenzorg, in Java, but stand unsurpassed for loveliness in landscaping. There are pagodas covered with vines under waving palms, in which grow all the orchids ever dreamed of, and also many devoted to ferns. Monkeys play in the trees, and maybe you don't think this suited William. He manages to make friends with all the guides, no matter what language they speak, and by the universal language of signs they talk, and he learns a lot from every one.

These Singapore gardens are beautiful, but the whole city is a garden. The governor's palace stands on the top of a hill, and here is another fine specimen of landscape gardening. The British soldier is everywhere in Singapore, but the dikko (policeman) which his majesty uses in every province in the east, is the grandest and most important person you see.

Singapore has many nationalities represented upon its streets—more than any other city in the world. The great ships from the east and the west from Indian to Australia, all stop at this port, and they say as many as 140 foreign ships anchor here every day. You meet East Indians, Ceylonese, Cingalese, Servians, Chinese, Javanese, Japanese, Malays, Europeans, every race, but there are only fifty Americans living here.

Of course, as the English own it there are many more Englishmen, but the population is mostly easterners, controlled by the English brain and pocketbook.

Wherever I see English rule I am proud of being an Anglo-Saxon. The public buildings in Singapore are fine and solid looking. The government offices are substantial and in the open squares are statues of English royalty and local heroes. The name "Raffles" appears often. He was a pioneer. Raffles hotel, where we took our fine lunch, was named after him. As we drove through the broad streets we were surprised by the splendid homes and the way these people prepare for hot weather. The houses in the dwelling portion are fine and large and mostly of great windows, with sashes that could be slid back and give more air.

There are lovely large fountains, with lawns and driveways through splendidly laid out grounds. Many of these houses are painted bright blue. These are the first blue houses we have seen. We drove up to the waterworks. From the reservoir we had a splendid view of the city and harbor, but as for the harbor, Hong Kong has the whole world beat. We also saw the famous rubber trees and learned how rubber is made.

The coolies here are the finest looking men of their class in the orient. In Japan the men are all small; in China, a vicious, humble, bent looking lot, but these men here seem fine, big straight fellows, who look strong enough to lift a ton. Their means of carrying goods is by cart with two wheels and drawn by two sacred bulls. They are lovely white animals and of the same splendid mold as the coolies.

We saw the Lascars, who are as black as ebony, with scarcely a stitch on them, carrying huge loads on their heads. They were perfect pictures. I got some snaps of them. They use a one-horse omnibus, which seats four uncomfortably, but their best conveyance is the Victoria, when you can get one. The Chinese quarters were clean, with unusually broad streets. We saw these industrious people washing and hanging out their clothes to dry in their own unique way.

The most miserable washing I ever saw done in my life is done in the east, in Java and China. We hate to soil anything white because it is so hard to have anything done up well. But to return to Singapore. We visited the local museum. There were ancient war relics, swords, armors, shields, ancient weapons of warriors, with their feathers and bows; the instruments of music used by the barbaric people of the islands; jewelry, old and new; stuffed monkeys, and specimens of every kind of animal, bird, fish, snake or living creature, perfectly preserved; whole leopards and tigers, and William was in his element. It was the most interesting we ever visited.

We then had lunch at Raffles' hotel. It is a splendid place, and there is in connection with it a hundred and fifty rooms for the "exiles" of the earth who wander into Singapore. I will describe these suites to you some other time.

We drove to the station after lunch and found ourselves in a Singapore railroad train, which was very com-walls of dirt a foot high around every field, and these are terraced up and flooded at the proper time. We had seen barley in terraces, but never rice. We enjoyed the ride through the country, for it gave us glimpses of the people that we would not otherwise have had.

They are a larger race than any we had seen as yet; they have beautiful brown hair, perfectly straight, fine teeth, bright eyes. They carry their loads on their heads. The sedan chair we did not see; but in the city we saw and rode, to our great discomfort, in the dosados, or native carriage. It is a two wheeled affair, the driver sitting in front and you and one other in the back, with your back against his, and you hold on to the side by a fender as best you can.

This carriage is drawn by a stately little pony, jingling in silver-plated harness. From the moment you get into the rig the driver begins to ask for his tip, by signs, saying he is hungry. If you give him the tip he will stop at the first place he can get something to eat and chat with friends for half an hour, while you sit in the cart and "fume."

The city of Batavia is beautiful, tropical and green; long, wide streets, beautifully paved and drained; bridges over the little canals and rivers. All the stone and building materials are of white; the houses colonial in style, and most of the dwellings one story, built high, with pillars in front of the broad porches. There are hedges of myrsine, in full bloom, and the wide streets are shaded by high trees of every description.

In the rivers we saw the people doing their washing and laying it on the banks to dry. In the same stream the common people were bathing, and so were their horses. The canal boats were dragged by men, who trotted along as cheerfully as could be. There were no beggars. They say we will find enough of them in India.

The Botanical garden in Batavia has a grand pavilion, at which 750 people sat down for their meals at one time. This was all very attractive, but we went on to Buitenzorg, which means "Peaceful Valley," to the greatest botanical garden in the world. Here one sees every kind of tree, not only in samples or specimens, but in groves, and every kind of tropical fruit and flowers brought to their highest development. This garden is the pride of the Dutch government, and it spares no money in its support. It has the greatest experts in every line cultivating each kind of fruit, etc. We saw wonderful orchids growing tied to trees; ferns from the tiniest to huge trees; the famous Banyan tree, which drops its

MILLINER OF BERLIN

Has Death Sentence Commuted to Life Imprisonment.

International News Service.

Berlin, May 14.—Augusta Zobel, a Berlin milliner, who murdered her rival in love, Freda Barthold, owes her life to the birth of an heir to the Grand Duke of Mecklenburg-Schwerin.

There were great rejoicings on the happy event, and the grand duke ordered the reduction of sentences on the criminals imprisoned.

Among them was Augusta Zobel, whose execution was to have taken place this month. The sentence was commuted to penal servitude for life. The woman's crime was committed at Rostock, where the young opera singer, Freda Barthold, was appearing.

Zobel's jealousy was aroused by her lover deserting her for the singer, and she went to visit Fraulein Barthold, with a revolver concealed in her muff. After the tragedy the murderess was arrested at the railroad station.

THE AIRDOME OPEN

Sedalia's Summer Theater Began Season With Overwhelming Crowd.

It is doubtful if the Airdome ever had a more auspicious opening than the one last night which started the 1910 season. Every seat was occupied, extra chairs were pressed into service and standing room was at a premium. Hundreds, unable to get in, were obliged to go home without even a "look in." It was a grand sight and was evidence of the popularity of the play house, the pleasures of which still linger in the hearts of the people from seasons gone by, and in a measure gauges what may be expected for this season if the high standard of entertainment is maintained, and doubtless it will.

Hundreds of incandescent lights illuminated the place till it was as light as day, while in front on high poles were two large red lights. The Airdome never looked more beautiful and more inviting in its coat of white.

Ye Colonial Stock Co., with a splendid cast, played "A Yale Cowboy," and between acts offered some very strong vaudeville. The show as a whole was good, pleased all present and started the season off at a lively pace. The same company will occupy the Airdome for two weeks, with a change of program every night.

A MONEY RAISING SALE

The Globe Clothing Store Inaugurated It Friday Morning.

The Globe clothing store at 109 West Main street is just at the beginning of a money raising sale. It started Friday. The aim is to turn $15,000 worth of merchandise into cash as soon as possible. To accomplish this, deep cuts have been made in every section, and low prices prevail on all spring goods. In fact, everything in the store has suffered in the price-cutting. Nothing has been spared. The goods have all been marked down to sell, and to sell quickly. A backward season of nearly two months of unprecedented cold weather deprived the Globe of its regular business, which is responsible for the desire to convert the stock into cash.

Before placing your order for wall paper come in and look at our line.—Great Scott.

GLEANINGS AND GOSSIP.

Taxicabs are a necessary institution in Paris, and they are all kept busy, according to a statement in a trade journal of that city, but one particular "taxi" seems to have the preference over all others. Its halting place is in front of one of the largest hotels, but it is seldom to be seen there because of the popularity of its driver, who is a young, full-blooded negress. She is an expert at the wheel, wears a dark blue tailor-made costume, with cap to match, knows her Paris perfectly, and because of the amount of business she does is the envy of the "taxicabables," with whom she is nevertheless on the best of terms.

A Canadian points out that the stature of the British soldier has been steadily declining for years. Fifty years ago the minimum height of a British infantryman was five feet six, and now it is down to five feet. The cause of this is said to be that most of the recruits are town bred.

New Zealand is now much troubled because the Dreadnaught she has offered to England will be the 13th ship which has been given to the mother country and the colony fears that her gift may be followed by ill luck. The United States might hand over the Texas.

Almost.

"It's wonderful how these Italian women can carry so much around on their heads, isn't it?"

"Yes, indeed. They almost equal their American sisters."—Town and Country.

Duchess Of Marlborough

Duchess of Marlborough, formerly Consuello Vanderbilt, who is attaining quite a reputation as a public speaker. She has addressed many gatherings of charitable organizations, and at a recent meeting of the Society of American Women in London she spoke in favor of woman suffrage and commended the courage of the suffragettes. She is as eloquent and forceful as her mother, Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont.

You Cannot Afford to Cross 3 Months Off the Calendar

In July, August, and September, there are 2,208 hours; about half of which time will be spent in sleep, and the details of existence; that leaves 1,104 hours to secure the right education for your future livelihood. Don't think you have crossed the finishing line because school has closed for the summer. Idleness grows on young people, and as nature knows no pause, young men and young women should not lose time in preparing for a successful business career. There is much myth about extended "vacation time," and it is absolutely true that every business has its harvest days. Every day is yours; and every day offers its opportunity to you, but are you prepared to do what that opportunity demands? If not, then you cannot afford to cross three months off the calendar. Do you know the value of time? You cannot afford to roam around looking for four leaf clovers, thinking that if you find one it will bring you luck. If you will put the same amount of attention, willingness and time in honest effort and preparation—do the right thing at the right time, you will not have to depend upon luck; there is a surer process—prepare, earn, and deserve it—that is the way to promotion. The past is done for, and the future will be what you make it. The ever present NOW is your only opportunity. NOW is the time for action and achievement.

Put In a Few Months Here

You cannot dispute the fact, that by putting in a few months preparation here, it will be the nucleus of a savings account that is bound to bring accrued interest. What better beginning can you ask for than to put a few months in here, and become a practical bookkeeper, stenographer and typewriter operator? Do you ever stop to consider that the same principle applies to time as well as money? Don't misappropriate valuable time any more than you would misappropriate money. Come here, put in a few months in conscientious study to improve and secure a practical business training, which is bound to increase your earning capacity, which in turn increases your savings account. It will stand you in good stead, because you are the one who will draw the accrued interest, indefinitely. This institution gives the same conscientious attention to the students advancement and welfare as does the parent and we place our graduates in desirable positions at good salaries.

NEWS OF THE RAIL

THE SALE OF $10,000,000 MISSOURI, KANSAS AND TEXAS BONDS ABROAD.

COACH, CAB AND CABOOSE ITEMS

Matters of Interest Picked Up From Various Sources for the Benefit of Democrat-Sentinel Readers.

The New York Wall Street Journal says: "The sale of $10,000,000 Missouri, Kansas and Texas bonds abroad, for which negotiations are now being carried on, is not a new departure for the company."

"For a number of years the M. K. & T. has been pretty well known across the water. Its bonds and stocks have been held in substantial amounts by both English and Dutch investors, who have also been largely interested in its neighbor, the Kansas City Southern. For some time there have been English and Dutch representatives on the board of the M. K. & T."

"In the absence of a statement as to what will be the character of the new securities, and in view of the present situation fostering convertible and debenture issues, it is impossible to say just what the new bonds will be. The company has none of either of these types, outstanding or authorized."

"On June 30, 1909, the total outstanding funded debt amounted to $112,287,000, of which approximately $29,000,000 represented underlying liens, and $83,000,000 the principal general mortgages. These latter are as follows: $40,000,000 first 4s, $20,000,000 second 4s, $13,170,000 sinking fund 4s, and $10,023,000 first and refunding 4s."

and friends here, returned home on the fast mail train yesterday morning.

Will Croff, chief clerk in the Missouri Pacific train dispatchers' office, and Rupert Malone left Saturday afternoon for Hodge, Mo., where the former will work until the landslide is cleared.

Employees of the Sedalia Light and Traction company, at a meeting held Friday night, were granted an increase of two cents an hour in wages, from 15 to 17 cents, by Supt. R. B. Hamner.

Owing to a landslide on the Missouri Pacific railway near Jefferson City Friday night, trains Nos. 3 and 11, due here in the early morning hours, were five hours late Saturday, being brought here as one train.

Charles Amick, a former Sedalian, now employed by a large construction firm at work on the Rock Island railway, and wife, who have been visiting Sedalia relatives for the past week, left last night for Boonville to visit relatives.

H. H. Black, one of the veteran conductors of the "Katy" out of Sedalia, was in the city last Monday evening, says the Green Ridge Local News, for a visit with friends, and by reason of the poor train service stayed here all night, returning Tuesday.

William Croff, chief clerk in the Missouri Pacific train dispatchers' office, who has been off from work for months, owing to illness, is convalescing very nicely, and will be able to resume his duties within the next fortnight, according to the prediction of his physician yesterday.

WORK OF THE BLACK HAND

The Organization Has Revived Its Activity in Hamburg.

International News Service.
Berlin, May 14.—The Black Hand, which was very active in Hamburg in 1902, has revived its activities in that city.

Wealthy and prominent citizens are its victims, from whom it demands, by means of threatening letters, big sums of money, with the option of an expose for real or imaginary offenses.

In some cases the Black Hand merely demands money or life, in the familiar method of the New York

Italian branch. The letters are written on superior paper, with the insignia of the order—skull, crossbones and black hand—stamped in black.

On the information of a wealthy widow, Frau Vieth, who received eight letters, the police got on the gang's track. But they arrived at the meeting place in a wood after the Black Handers had dispersed. The letters are still going around.

Buckner Case Dismissed.

AMERICAN MONEY

IS SPENT MOST LAVISHLY IN ENGLAND BY LEADERS OF SOCIETY.

ENGLISH SISTERS CAN'T KEEP UP

Because of This Fact Lady Innes-ker Will Hie to the Country for the Summer—What Shall Be Done With Kitchener?

International News Service.

London, May 14.—Although the English hostesses are unaffected by the extravagant entertainments which are being given by the American millionaire hostesses residing in London, and are not trying to eclipse their rivals by finer splendor, it is well known that other Americans not as rich as their leaders are living far plorable condition by her step-father, Mr. Higgins, several times, but he has rebelled this spring, which makes it probable that Lady Innes-ker and her menage will spend most of the coming season in the country, while her charming town house will be rented to the first rich American desiring a residence in London.

What to do with Lord Kitchener now that he is here is a question being discussed by nearly everybody in London. It is recognized that he will not stay long in the ornamental position of commander-in-chief of the Mediterranean—the post which was vacated by the Duke of Connaught because it was little better than an empty title.

There are several high appointments being suggested which the field marshal could fill with advantage to the country. That of minister of war, if offered to him, he is certain not to accept, as he would be most unwilling to engage in party politics. The next most important military post, now that the commander-in-chief has beyond their means in order to keep in the swirl of society.

Since the Reids inaugurated costly festivities in Anglo-American circles, there have been certain young couples who have had a difficult time trying to make ends meet. This is because of their social duties. They have to entertain, and only extravagant affairs are recognized.

One of the greatest sufferers is Lady Alestair Innes-ker, who has to entertain on a very modest income, compared with her friends, Countess Granard, formerly Miss Beatrice Mills, and Mrs. John Ward, who was Miss Jean Reid, and the result is that she runs heavily in debt every year. She has been rescued from her de-become abolished, is chief of the general staff, with a seat on the imperial defense committee. That would be the ideal post for Kitchener, but if he gets it it will be in spite of a powerful intrigue of politicians and reactionaries.

Many people suggest that Lord Kitchener should be sent back to India as governor general, in place of Lord Minto. The post of viceroy of India, of course, is a brilliant one, full of pomp and social power; but as Lord Kitchener dislikes ceremonial glitter and is a bachelor with no social aspirations, he is not exactly panting for the honor.

The question remains. What will they do with Kitchener?

THIRTEEN-YEAR-OLD BOY

Has Produced Wonderful Compositions in Music.

International News Service.

Berlin, May 14.—The extraordinary compositions of a 13-year-old boy, Erich Korngold, son of a Viennese musical critic, have called forth remarkable tribute from Dr. Richard Strauss. The boy's work includes a sonata for piano, music for apantomime, and a set of six character studies entitled "Don Quixote." Dr. Strauss writes:

"I have received the compositions and read them through with the greatest astonishment. The first feeling I had was one of awe and apprehension, succeeded by a fervent wish that so precocious manifestation of genius may have an opportunity for normal development. What assurance of style, mastery of form, individuality of expression, and harmonization in the sonata! It is all genuinely astounding."

Prof. Herman Kreischmar, director of the Royal High School of Music at Berlin says: "I know of no analogous case but that of young Handel."

PETTY LEGAL DISPUTES

In Which the Kaiser and His Son Have Become Involved.

International News Service.

Berlin, May 14.—The Kaiser and his son, Prince Eitel Frederick, have been involved in rather petty legal disputes with the municipality of Potsdam. The local authorities claimed $38 and tax from the Kaiser in respect of a meadow belonging to his Potsdam estate, and the Kaiser declined to pay, claiming that the meadow was a garden within the meaning of the law—the imperial gardens being free of taxation. After some legal quibbling the court decided in the Kaiser's favor, but the municipality has lodged an appeal against the judgment.

Prince Eitel Fritz's tract was about three acres of Potsdam town land, which he offered to buy for $8,000 to enlarge his park. The municipality demanded $47,500, and declares that if the prince does not pay this sum they will sell the land in building lots. Thus, unless the prince yields to the demand, he runs the risk of having huge inartistic flat buildings erected in front of his castle.

SAXONY RICH IN RADIUM

So Says a Report Just Issued by the Government.

International News Service.

Berlin, May 14.—Saxony is wonderfully rich in radium, according to an official report issued by the government, after a comprehensive search throughout the kingdom.

Specimens of water for testing were taken from 484 different sources, including mines, springs, brooks and ponds, and 84 of these showed radio activity. Twelve were classed as strongly radio-active, some being much stronger than the well known Brabenack spring at Gastein and the Buetquelle in Baden.

The government report adds that besides water, stones, ores, sand, mud and air taken from different parts of Saxony are being treated to find radium. The government proposes to create a state monopoly of all pitch blends (in which pure radium is found) discovered in privately owned mines.

SALE WAS IN PRIVATE

Gardner Collection of 70,000 Prints and Drawings.

International News Service.

London, May 14.—A great print and drawing sale announced for this month has been cancelled because the collection has been sold privately.

Worth at least $200,000, the Gardner collection of nearly 70,000 prints and drawings of old London was to have been sold at Sotheby's auction rooms, and the sale would have been a big event in the art world. The purchaser was a private English collector who remained anonymous.

CATHEDRAL OF ST. PAUL

First Wedding in Fourteen Years Has Been Solemnized There.

International News Service.

London, May 14.—For the first time in fourteen years a wedding has been solemnized in St. Paul's cathedral. The great church is not licensed for marriages, and only in exceptional cases is the Archbishop of Canterbury's special license granted for the purpose.

In this case both bride and groom were closely connected with the Cathedral, for the daughter of Canon Newbolt, canon-in-residence for the time being, was being wedded to the sub-organist, Charles Macpherson.

The Bishop of London tied the knot in this unusual ceremony, and the full choir of the Cathedral took part in the service.

 PEOPLE OF LONDON ARE DEMANDING NOW.

FLEET STREET IS TO BE WIDENED

It Will Require an Expenditure of $10,000,000—Piccadilly Is Also in Throes of a Widening Process at Present.

International News Service.

London, May 14.—The beautification of London is slowly but surely proceeding. Fleet street, impossibly narrow for the amount of traffic daily filtering through it, is to be widened at a cost of $10,000,000, and old established tradesmen have already begun to move into temporary premises.

Piccadilly is also in the throes of a widening process that will entail an expenditure of even more money than the Fleet street scheme. East of Temple Bar a new bridge is projected in order to relieve the great traffic across Southwark and, Blackfriars bridges. There are already ten bridges between the Tower bridge and the Suspension bridge at Hammersmith, and the addition of another will almost transfer the river Thames into an arcade.

The art world is greatly disturbed for fear the new bridge may prove an eyesore, as bad or even worse than many of the Thames abortions. Sir W. B. Richmond, Sir Lawrence Alma-Tadema and half a dozen other royal academicians have written a letter to the newspapers begging the authorities to put up a bridge that will be useful, but at the same time picturesque and artistic.

The structures that span the Seine are held up for emulation by these authorities, and are contrasted with such dreary engineering results as cross the river at Blackfriars and Southwark.

"If we are to have a bridge," say they, "let us have one that will do us credit and not make us the laughing stock of every visitor to London."
 But the corporation keeps its plans to itself and there is nothing to do but to take Mr. Asquith's advice and "wait and see."

 cial family of peasants, was 26 years old, handsome, military appearance, and conquered female admiration wherever he turned.

Sometimes he got so embroiled in his love affairs that his chiefs, who got to know of it, had to give him paternal advice, spiced now and then with a few days of military arrest.

Nothing cured him, however, and his last difficult situation arose from the fact that he was in love with a young married woman and with the sweetheart of one of his friends.

The inevitable happened, and the second woman was placed in such a situation that when his chiefs learned of it they told him that he had no alternative but to marry her.

He, however, was so embarrassed at not knowing which side to choose that he could think of nothing better than to commit suicide with the one who apparently loved him most. This turned out to be the married woman.
 She had, unknown to her husband,
 rented a room apart, where she received the guard. He broke through the rules which confined him to the barracks, and went to the meeting place with his revolver loaded. They penned together the following letters.
 She wrote to her husband:

"When you get this you will be rid of me and happy. Adieu. Don't be angry long."

He wrote to a friend:
 "Don't bother to try to discover the reasons for our death. We are tired of life and we prefer to be united forever in death. We wish to be buried in the same grave, so as not to be separated in eternity."

When they had written this they calmly carried out their tragic purpose. They were found dead on the bed, lying arm in arm, and each had two bullet wounds in the head. Four shots had been fired from the revolver, which was still in the guard's hand.

NEWBRO'S HERPICIDE

I am feeling fine. Do I look good? Just washed my hair and put Herpicide on it. The worst thing about washing hair is that it is flyey and unmanageable. By using Herpicide Soap for shampooing and then applying Newbro's Herpicide you won't have any trouble. Herpicide allows it to dry quickly and the hair is just as light and fluffy as can be. You can do it up as nice the first day as the second.
 Herpicide is the finest thing for the hair I ever saw. It is not greasy, does not stain or destroy the natural oil. It is just right.

I believe Herpicide is a sanitary necessity to every woman's toilet. Besides being a most delightful dressing, it saves the hair—prevents it coming out. Loose hair in the comb is the sure sign of danger. The dandruff germ does that, kills the follicles and throws up the scarf skin that is so horrid.

Herpicide kills this germ, keeps the scalp clean and allows the hair to grow as it should. It makes beautiful hair—hair that has that nice gloss and lustre.

You can get a large bottle of Herpicide from your druggist for a dollar. Use it as directed and if not satisfied, go back and get your money. The Company that makes Herpicide are so sure that it will do as they claim that they guarantee it.

If you have not read it, you should send for their book—"The Hair and Its Care." It is sent to anyone upon request. You can also get a nice big sample of Herpicide with the book by sending ten cents in postage stamps to The Herpicide Company, Dept. 29B, Detroit, Mich.

The best barbers and hair dressers all recommend Newbro's Herpicide.

 is: "When in doubt about a car, buy a Ford."

We handle the Ford, and our customers think so highly of it and praise it so continually, that we would not change our line for any other car on the market.

We advise any one thinking about buying an automobile, to investigate the Ford and compare it with other cars.

The Ford is thoroughly economical, simple, durable and always to be relied on. It will take you up-hill, down-hill, through mud, sand, ruts, or anything else; and it will bring you home again.

What about the price? Say, the price is one of the most tempt-

A CASE OF DISGUST

SON OF PRINCE ALBERT HAS REFUSED TO SUCCEED TO THE THRONE.

SAYS HE WILL HAVE NONE OF IT

The Suicides, Broken Hearts, Ruined Homes and Countless Unknown Tragedies Are More Than He Cares to Father.

BY MARQUIS DE CASTELLANE
International News Service.

Paris, May 14.—The Duc de Morny is detained in Europe for a few weeks, owing to illness. He had expected to go to the United States this month, where large business enterprises await him. The duke has formed a partnership with Frank Lacroix Gardner, the American millionaire, who made his money in Australian mines. Gardner was formerly the friend of Carrie Swaine, the singer—that is, he was her theatrical manager, and his wealth is said to be largely due to her advice and assistance.

The Duc de Morny is chiefly known for having married the beautiful daughter of Gusman Blanco, the predecessor of Castro in the dictatorship of Venezuela. The duke and the duchess are legally separated. They would have been divorced had they not both been devout Catholics.

The duke's brother, the Count de Morny, has made many unsuccessful efforts to marry an American heiress. His father was the Duc de Morny, who was responsible for the "coup d'etat" which transformed Napoleon III from president of the republic into emperor of France. This was the first Duc de Morny. His dual title was conferred by the emperor, and he was one of the most prominent figures of the second empire.

The mother of the first Duc de Morny was Hortense Beauharnais, queen of Holland, who married Louis Bonaparte, brother of Napoleon III. Morny is known to history as "the brother of the emperor." He bore a striking resemblance to the emperor, who always treated him as a brother and gave him every opportunity for becoming rich.

Prince Albert, of Monaco, like that other philosopher, Seneca, is having many family troubles. His only son and heir refuses to succeed to the throne of the gambling principality. It seems that the suicides, broken hearts, ruined homes and countless unknown tragedies caused by the gambling at Monte Carlo have sickened and disgusted him. He says he will have none of it.

Prince Louis, of Monaco, is the son of Prince Albert by his first wife, who was a daughter of the Duke of Hamilton. He is 40 years of age and inherits the strictly moral principles of his English mother. Prince Albert and the Duchess of Hamilton had the marriage annulled, after which the prince married the Duchess de Richlen, formerly Miss Heine, of New Orleans, from whom also he has been divorced.

Should Prince Louis persist in renouncing his rights to the throne of Monaco, the next heir will be the Duke of Vrac, son of Duke William, of Wurtemberg, and Princess Florentine, of Monaco. He is a nephew of Prince Albert and is 46 years old. His wife is Princess Amelie, of Bavaria.

Probably the most pathetic as well as the most distinguished figure in Paris today is ex-Governor William L. Sprague, the last of the great war governors of the United States. He is now in his 81st year. The immediate cause of his coming to Paris was the burning of his ancestral home at Narragansett pier. This historic structure was one of the finest country residences in America. Governor Sprague is seen in company with three distinguished American gentlemen to whom he issued army commissions in his fiery youth. One of these officers is Harrie Phelps, who lives in the home of the ex-king of Hanover, wears a monocle and has become a French citizen. A second is Col. Schleisinger, brother of Sebastian B. Schleisinger, formerly a Boston banker and now well known in the Paris musical world. The third is Col. Frank H. Mason, American consul general at Paris. Ex-Governor Sprague may be seen on sunny days strolling along the Champs Elysees with his tiny granddaughter clinging affectionately to his aged hand.

I attended a most interesting musicale this week, given at the home of Mrs. Archibald G. White, at the home of Bemberg, the composer. Mrs. White is a very beautiful woman and sings delightfully. Her husband, an American millionaire, is president of the Cincinnati Gas Co., and a business partner of President

Paris is losing its chivalry. Mme. Durand, who ran for the chamber of deputies, got only a handful of votes; and yet she is eloquent and beautiful. Mme. Durand has been in politics since the days of General Boulanger. She was a great admirer of the "man who rode the black circus horse," and espoused his cause from the time she was a brilliant actress of the Comedie Francaise. After the fall of her hero she married a lawyer, Monsieur Laguerre. Later on she founded and edited a woman's newspaper. And yet the ungallant Parisians will have none of her in a political way. Certainly we are losing our chivalry.

We have been caught trying to whistle down the big theater hat. Of course, the hats are big, but the wearers are women, and are not women entitled to all our respect and adoration? Then there is the mantle. Queen Helena, of Italy, admires it, and is trying to make it fashionable. But Frenchmen will have none of it. They point the finger of scorn at the ladies who wear it, and declare, "You can't put back the hands of the clock."

No, we are not chivalrous these days. I am told the ladies are about to found an academy of their own, if we persist in refusing them admittance to ours. I hope they will. The idea is gaining ground. The poetess, Countess Mathew de Hollies, will no doubt be elected its first president, and in this case Lucie Felix Faure, daughter of our dead president, will be chosen for its first secretary.

WYETH'S SAGE AND SULPHUR HAIR REMEDY

The Only True Hair Restorer, Tonic and Rejuvenator

ALMOST A MIRACLE

My hair was as white as snow when I commenced using Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy. One bottle restored my hair to its natural dark brown color. As I am now 70 years old, I consider the result most remarkable. It is an agreeable and refreshing hair dressing, keeping the hair soft and glossy, without being in the least greasy or sticky.

WM. WESTLAKE,
210 West Main Street, Rochester, N. Y.

Why hesitate when WYETH'S SAGE AND SULPHUR HAIR REMEDY is daily producing just such results?

After years of study and analysis of the hair, we have been able to produce an ideal Hair Tonic and Restorer, which contains an actual constituent of hair, combined with ingredients of recognized merit for treatment of hair and scalp diseases. It makes and keeps the scalp clean and healthy, gives life, strength and lustre to the hair, and restores faded and gray hair to natural color.

BALLOON MISHAPS

STEP TO PREVENT SUCH CATASTROPHES AS HAVE OCCURRED RECENTLY.

EIGHT WERE KILLED AT ONETIME

German Aeronauts Themselves Are Thoroughly Interested in Balloon Reform—Explore Eastern Sahara.

BY STEVEN BURNETT.
International News Service.

Berlin, May 14.—The recent fatal accidents to eight German balloonists have caused such a painful impression that an earnest agitation has been launched for a more strict control of aeronautic sport. The Kaiser has identified himself with the movement, and has given orders that a number of expert reports shall be laid before him relating to the possibility of preventing such catastrophes as have recently occurred.

German aeronauts themselves are thoroughly interested in "balloon reform." Several important clubs are prepared to support a law which shall make it misdemeanor to ascend in a balloon unless telegraphic assurance has been received from the central meteorological station at Aix-la-Chapelle that the weather outlook, as far as human prognostication can go, is favorable. Such assurance will, of course, be no guarantee against disaster. Only a week or two ago, for instance, during a trial at Stuttgart, in which Count Zeppelin was sued for damages in connection with the wreck of the Zeppelin IV. at Echterdingen in August, 1908, it was stated that half a dozen eminent meteorologists had assured the count on the morning of the fateful day that conditions for a cross-country flight were ideal.

Attention has been especially directed to the manner in which balloons are likely to be struck by lightning. Accidents of the kind are not uncommon in the case of dragon kites and captive balloons, and it is well known that the nearer the earth the aerostat is the likelier it is to be struck. The incident was not reported, but a few weeks ago, a so-called "kite-balloon," sent up from the Berlin aerological institute, at Lindenberg, was struck when a hundred feet from the ground and it disappeared in flame.

As a rule the free balloon, as it ascends, acquires the same electric subjectivity as the air that surrounds it, and as there is no difference in the media of transmission there is no spark and consequently no fire. On the other hand, it may happen that the balloon comes between the earth and electricity attracted to the earth, and that the lightning thus passes through the balloon. This, it is believed, was the cause of the accident at Rome in 1907, when Captain Ullivelli, of the military airship corps, ascended about a thousand feet in the presence of the king and queen of Italy, only from that height to fall at their feet in his burning balloon.

Balloonists are often advised to rise above a storm in which they may happen to drift. This is easier said than done, for owing to the noise of rain or hail on the balloon it is not always possible to detect the existence of thunder, the accompaniment of lightning, nor has the balloonist always sufficient ballast for that purpose.

Dr. Siegert, a well known German geologist, in an address before the Imperial Aero club of Berlin the other day, outlined a scheme for exploring the unknown regions of the Eastern Sahara by means of a com-lined airship and motor-car expedition. Dr. Siegert pointed out that meteorological conditions and the traffic facilities of the Nile valley is peculiarly well adapted for exploration of airship. Eminent geographical authorities, including the presidents of several societies in Germany, have pronounced the plan to be feasible and full of promise from a scientific standpoint. Dr. Siegert reckons the cost at $250,000.

Colonel Gadke, the "infant terrible" among German military and naval experts, who recently brought coals of official fire upon his head by telling the truth about the Kaiser's cruisers, in the "Tageblatt" this week gives a prophetic vision of a German invasion of England. Discussing "Landing Possibilities," the colonel writes:

"Neither a German landing in England, with 120,000 or 150,000 men, as Lord Robert thinks, or with less than 70,000, as the government itself seems to believe, is practically possible. The landing of a division would, perhaps, under favorable conditions, be theoretically conceivable, but owing to England's well-organized means of internal defence it would be hopeless and worthless. We would certainly not sacrifice a division for such a raid, or, better said, a free-booting expedition.

"If we wanted to harass or devastate the English coasts there would be no other means. The risking of an army division would not correspond with the gain which would be derived. If, however, the improbable should occur, namely, that the English fleet, even for a brief spell, should be wiped off the North sea, then we should certainly land, not with 70,000 or 150,000 men, but with at least 900,000 and with a formidable enough equipment to enable us to bring the war to a decisive finish in England itself."

Discussing the possibility of an English invasion of Germany, the colonel regards such an operation possible only if Germany were pre-occupied on her French and Russian frontiers; if the English army had established bases in Holland and Belgium and enjoyed the support of Dutch and Belgian military contingents; or if an English army, supported by Danish troops, could march against the Kaiser Wilhelm canal from a base in Denmark. Heavy defensive forces, Col. Gadke

A CORROBORATION

Of Interest to Sedalia Readers.

For months Sedalia citizens have seen in these columns enthusiastic praise of Doan's Kidney Pills, by residents of this locality.

Would these prominent people recommend a remedy that had not proven reliable?

Would they confirm their statements after years had elapsed if personal experience had not shown the remedy to be worthy of endorsement?

No stronger proof of merit can be had than cures that have stood the test of time.

The following statement should carry conviction to the mind of every Sedalia reader:

Mrs. William Ricks, 605 W. Fifth St., Sedalia, Mo., says: "I used Doan's Kidney Pills and can say that they did me a world of good. I had kidney trouble and suffered a great deal from pain and weakness in my back and hips. Doan's Kidney Pills obtained at Bard's drug store, cured me and I have had no return of the trouble." (Statement given in 1901.)

Time is the Test.

On Oct. 16, 1908, Mrs. Ricks said: "I still think highly of Doan's Kidney Pills, as I have had no return of my old trouble in over seven years. I gladly re-endorse this remedy."

FADEC VIOLET BOQUET

Was Among the Archives That Had Been Preserved.

International News Service.

Milan, May 14.—Signor Luigi Luzzatti, the new Italian premier, being the minister of the interior, was conducted the other day over the spacious archives of that department. Heaving a sigh at the mountainous piles of dust-laden documents, Signor Luzzatti asked, "Is it really necessary or desirable to preserve all these accumulations?"

"Decidedly so," quickly retorted the curator. "Here, for instance," exclaimed he, picking up a bundle at haphazard, "is a dossier dealing with a grand scheme of administration reform, which occupied successive ministers for thirty years."

"Heavens," ejaculated Signor Luzzatti, now profoundly interested, "let's have a look at it."

Imagine the poor curator's plight when the parcel being undone, the contents were found to consist of a big bouquet of faded violets, a very old pair of gloves, and a large liver patty, all supposed to be relics of the far-off days when Crispi ruled.

CLERK A LITTLE TOO GAY

Spread It on Too Thick on a Salary of $500 a Year.

International News Service.

Paris, May 14.—Earning a salary of a trifle over $500 a year, but living to his employer's detriment at the rate of several thousands. Such is the charge on which a merchant's clerk is now in custody.

According to the story, the merchant had already noticed, with a certain amount of bewilderment, the gorgeous attire in which his clerk, whose fingers were covered with rings, appeared at the office, and also when he perceived him driving in an elegant automobile, while he himself was contented with a modest vehicle drawn by a cab.

His suspicions being thus aroused, he ascertained that the young man had also bought a villa, where he kept a very smart establishment. So the merchant got a friend to go over the books, with the result that he questioned his clerk, who was soon afterwards arrested in consequence of his employer's complaint.

Pains of women, head pains, or any pain stopped in 20 minutes, with Dr. Shoop's Pink Pain Tablets. See full formula on 25c Box. Sold by D. I. Wilcox.

THE PLAYING OF CARDS

Has Caused Russian Chief of Police Lots of Trouble.

International News Service.

St. Petersburg, May 14.—M. Koshelev, a wealthy merchant of the Caucasian district, has had an experience that rarely happens outside the covers of a "wild west" romance. Recently he was taken prisoner by brigands, who demanded for his release a ransom of $3,000. The money was paid by the merchant's wife in 500-rouble notes, the number of which she had previously taken.

A few days after his liberation Koshelev was playing cards at his club with the local chief of police, when he was astonished to see his opponent pay his losses with some of the identical notes given for the merchant's ransom. The suspected dealings between the police and the brigands are now the subject of an official inquiry.

PAY THEIR DEBTS

THOSE OF OFFICERS OF AUSTRIO-HUNGARIAN ARMY TO BE LIQUIDATED.

QUESTION OF HOW IS NOW SOLVED

The interest on $1,000,000 is to be advanced to the officers to pay their obligations—where money comes from.

International News Service

Vienna, May 14.—The question of forcing the officers of the Austro-Hungarian army from the weight of their personal debts, a matter which has long engaged the attention of high military circles, has at last been solved.

A fund, consisting of some millions of kronen, will be established, and the first draft upon it for the purpose indicated will be made on August 18, next, the eightieth birthday of the Emperor Francis Joseph.

The capital sum, it is understood, will be $1,000,000, and the interest on this amount will be advanced to the officers for the purpose of discharging their obligations.

The capital has been drawn from the Maria Theresa fund, from funds left by the late Archduke Albrecht for the support of charitable institutions, and from a bank loan.

The Maria Theresa fund is particularly wealthy, and from it the Knights of Maria Theresa draw their considerable pensions.

As, however, there only remains one home Knight of the Maria Theresa order, Baron Fejervary, and two foreign knights, the Count of Gaserta and the Duke of Cumberland, the fund has gone on increasing year by year.

The assistance to the officers will be dispensed with the utmost prudence. The highest sums granted will be $600 to a lieutenant, $1,000 to a first lieutenant and $1600 to a captain.

The splendid work of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets is daily coming to light. No such grand remedy for liver and bowel troubles was ever known before. Thousands bless them for curing constipation, sick headache, biliousness, jaundice and indigestion. Sold by all dealers.

CLOSE OF THE "BAZAAR"

Some of the Prizes That Were Awarded Friday Night.

The week's bazaar at Sacred Heart hall closed Friday night with a crowded house, all pronouncing it one of the most delightful affairs of the season.

Miss Irene Riley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Riley, was the successful contestant in the gold watch contest. Many congratulations were extended to Miss Irene, who is quite a favorite in the younger set. The watch awarded Miss Riley was the gift of Messrs. J. W. Murphy and George Blechsl.

Among other fortunate contestants were Mayor J. W. Mellor, Dr. W. J. Ferguson, Judge D. E. Kennedy, J. J. Wermelskirchen, Timothy Clifford, George Blechsl, Frank Meyer, Mesdames Charles P. Keck, Fred Esser, Misses Emma Keeler, Kathryn Corbett and Leonora Lennartz.

Mrs. W. H. Geigel luckily guessed the name, "Georgia," in the doll contest, that name having been conferred in honor of little Miss Georgia Boland, the baby pupil of Sacred Heart school.

The young ladies of the diamond ring contest made many friends for themselves during the week, and they appreciate the favors extended. The contest will come to a close on the evening of commencement exercises of Sacred Heart school, the latter part of May. Results will then be announced from the stage and the ring presented to the fortunate contestant. A goodly sum was realized from the bazaar, which will be applied to the debt on the new school building.

HOW HE CURED BLOOD POISON

I didn't find out I had contracted Contagious Blood Poison until it had made considerable headway. I had heard a great deal of the value of S. S. S. as a blood medicine, in fact had a friend who had cured himself of the same disease through its use, so as soon as I discovered the nature of my trouble I began taking it. I got along splendidly from the very first and my recovery was steady. When I first began the use of S. S. S. my face was so full of sores and eruptions that I could not shave. Other parts of my body were similarly affected, but there is now not a blotch, pimple or any other sign of the disease. I was cured by S. S. S. and I know I am cured to stay cured as this was several years ago. There is nothing that equals S. S. S. for Contagious Blood Poison and I always recommend it in such cases.

WALTER WEBER.

No. 430½ Fourth St., Evansville, Ind.

The acknowledged virtue of S. S. S. as a blood remedy induced Mr. Weber to commence its use when he found he had contracted Contagious Blood Poison. The good results he obtained is just another demonstration of its value as a cure for this disease.

Contagious Blood Poison is the most powerful and destructive of all blood disorders. Its virus permeates the entire circulation and this explains why any one afflicted with this malady usually finds its symptoms manifested in every portion of the body. From head to foot the insidious poison breaks forth. The hair and eyebrows come out, the mouth and throat ulcerate, skin eruptions and sores break out on the body, the bones ache, glands in the groin swell, and frequently the nails on hands and feet are affected.

The only possible way to cure Contagious Blood Poison is to remove the cause by purifying the blood. This is just what S. S. S. does; and it is the only medicine that absolutely and thoroughly cleanses the circulation of every particle of the germs and virus of the disease. Mercury, Potash, etc., are often used by despairing sufferers in the hope that such strong treatment will kill the poison. But this cannot be done; the disease may be checked temporarily and the symptoms improved, but the old poison is slumbering in the blood, and when the treatment is left off the disease always returns.

The ability of S. S. S. to cure Contagious Blood Poison comes from its blood purifying properties. It goes into the circulation and removes every trace of the poison, makes the blood pure and healthy, and leaves no dregs of the virus to break out later on. S. S. S. is made entirely of roots, herbs and barks, each of which has a direct and specific effect in purifying the blood. S. S. S. does not contain a particle of mineral in any form to upset the stomach, affect the bowels, or inflame any of the delicate membranes of the body. It is Nature's blood purifier, potent and healthful, and so valuable are its tonic effects that when S. S. S. has rid the circulation of the Contagious Blood Poison the entire system is left in fine physical condition. We want to help every Contagious Blood Poison sufferer to get well, and for this purpose we have prepared a special book for Home Treatment. We will mail this book with any special medical advice free. THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.

OPINION OF M. FREDRIC MASON

Hotel Keepers Protest Against the Heavy Charges Imposed on Their Trade—Painful
Story of a Sailor.

BY GEORGE DUFRESNE
International News Service.

Paris, May 14.—Although weeks have now passed since Mr. Roosevelt's memorable visit, the discussion of his personality is still going on with undiminished interest.

That Roosevelt may yet end as the Napoleon of America is the opinion of M. Frederic Mason, the distinguished historian of the Napoleonic dynasty and member of the French Academy, who writes:

"The United States have found their Caesar; he is just what they should be. We old Latins are not pleased with him at all; it suffices that he pleases his own people."

M. Mason, therefore, regards Mr. Roosevelt as the "home providential," who soon "will rise from the ashes of the constitution of the United States to a magistrature which will perhaps still be republican in name, but which will, in point of fact, be dictatorial, and—let us out with the word—imperial."

"The American democracy has need of a conciliator. Whatever he the title they give to him, chief minister, protector, emperor, even, it is only by an extra-constitutional concentration of the legislative powers that this conciliator will be able to fulfill his task."

The American people, in the opinion of M. Mason, without knowing exactly the malady from which they are suffering, nor the remedy which is required to cure it, acclaim the man who will probe the wound and apply the hot iron cure. "They will follow this man; American imperialism cannot help, sooner or later, terminating in Caesarism."

Twelve hundred hotel keepers have just held a meeting protesting against the heavy charges imposed on their trade, and against the recent police ordinance which forbids hotel proprietors, under penalties, receiving certain guests whose characters may be open to objection. A number of members of the chamber were present at the meeting, and one and all protested against the ordinance issued by M. Lepine, the prefect of police.

A strongly worded resolution was passed. It protested against the chamber piling up fiscal charges on the hotel keepers and passing laws which interfered with commercial and individual liberty without offering compensation. It approved the economic program of the government, which does not admit of new taxes or state interference with the way hotel keepers conduct their business, and thanked the members of the chamber for their promise to vote against the reintroduction by the legislature of old police ordinances.

A painful story of the fall of a sailor, the son of General Sauret, chief of the military government of Paris, was revealed at the naval court martial at Toulon yesterday.

On January 2, the sailors having received their pay, were patronizing the cafes freely. One had a bottle of wine under his arm. He was met by three sailors, named Sauret, Calon and Kerfaon. They made a dash for the bottle, but the owner showed fight, and though he was overcome he bit the hand of one of his aggressors. It was Sauret.

A few minutes later another sailor was assailed by the same young men. This was a grave affair, for while the sailor was struggling with his comrades one of the latter planted a dagger in his back. Cries were raised, and Sauret, Calon and Kerfaon were arrested.

At the inquiry into this affair Sauret was questioned as to his father's profession.

"It is a very sorry one," he replied.

"What is it?" he was asked.

"General of brigade," was the reply. The answer was correct. The three sailors appeared before the naval court martial. Claud Sauret, the principal accused, was described as an apache. He took service in 1907, and for two years was an exemplary sailor. One day he had a severe fall, which necessitated his living in a hospital for five months. On recovering he had a worse fall. He fell among bad companions, and was often punished. He had his body tattooed with ridiculous designs. On his breast was a pig wearing an officer's hat.

When the case against the young man had been gone into, General Sauret, his father, advanced to the bar, and presented his son's defense.

"I should have been accused of cowardice if I had not come," he said.

The court martial found the men guilty, and sentenced Claude Sauret to three years' imprisonment. Calon was sentenced to three years and Kerfaon to a year's imprisonment, with, however, the benefit of the first offender's law.

The police at Le Mans are searching for a band of criminals, who made a specialty of entering houses occupied by old people and murdering them if they refused to reveal where their money was concealed. Two brothers named Dollin confessed to murdering a widow at Mexaray, and the police authorities came to the conclusion that they had accomplices.

An inquiry showed that the brothers Dollin had committed several crimes of this character. In December, 1909, accompanied by a preacher named Butet, they entered the house of an elderly couple at Parigne Le Pilin and put it to sack. A fortnight afterwards the same men, all armed, forced their way into a house occupied by a single woman, and pointing their guns to her forehead compelled her to say where she kept her money. The robbers went off with $600 and put the place to sack. The poacher has just been arrested. Other arrests are imminent. The police are convinced that the band was organized and operated after the fashion of the famous Pollet gang, the leaders of which were executed.
